

Hello!

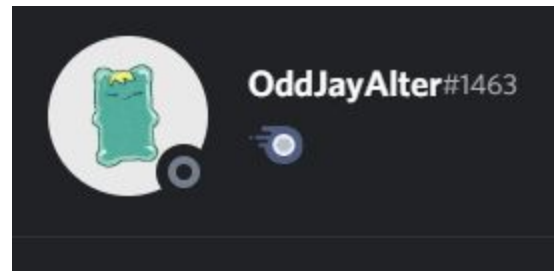

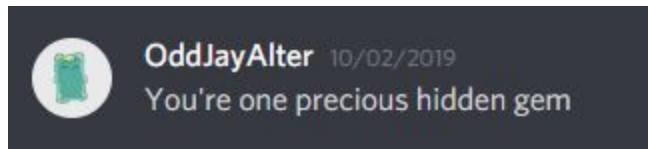

I'd like to offer the other readers of this message a trigger warning. This document holds content mentioning sexual harassment, NSFW, and other sensitive topics that might make you uncomfortable. My goal isn't to make you uneasy, or relive horrid memories, just to inform.

If these topics do not sit well with you, I ask you one thing to pass this message on. From one victim to the next. Thank you! Best of luck, things do get better!

If you wish to, continue reading and I hope you hear what I have to say.

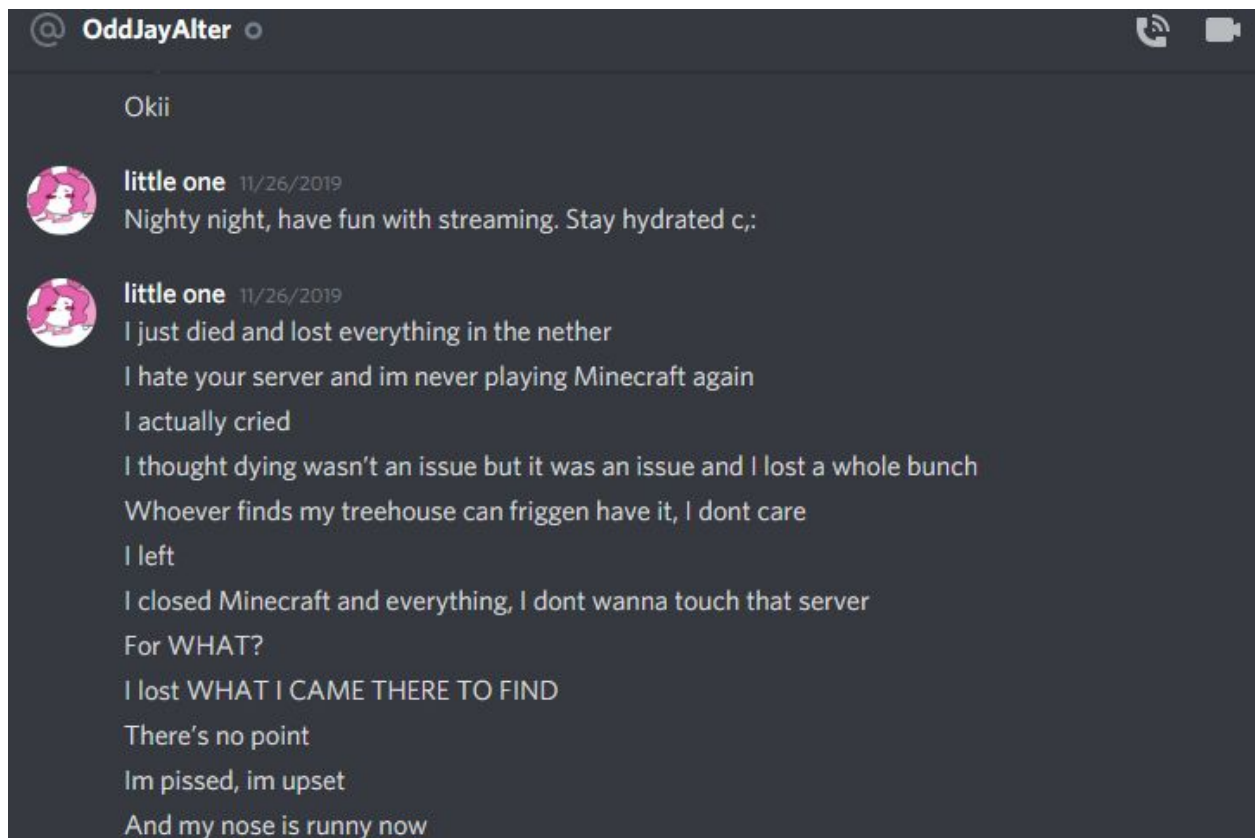

Let's begin.

Hello OddJayAlter! How are you? Hope things are going well. This message has been passed down and tossed from reader to reader and hopefully by the time you read this, it will be a discussion that others can join in on and warn eachother. It's your girl "Bunny" or shall I say your "precious hidden gem"

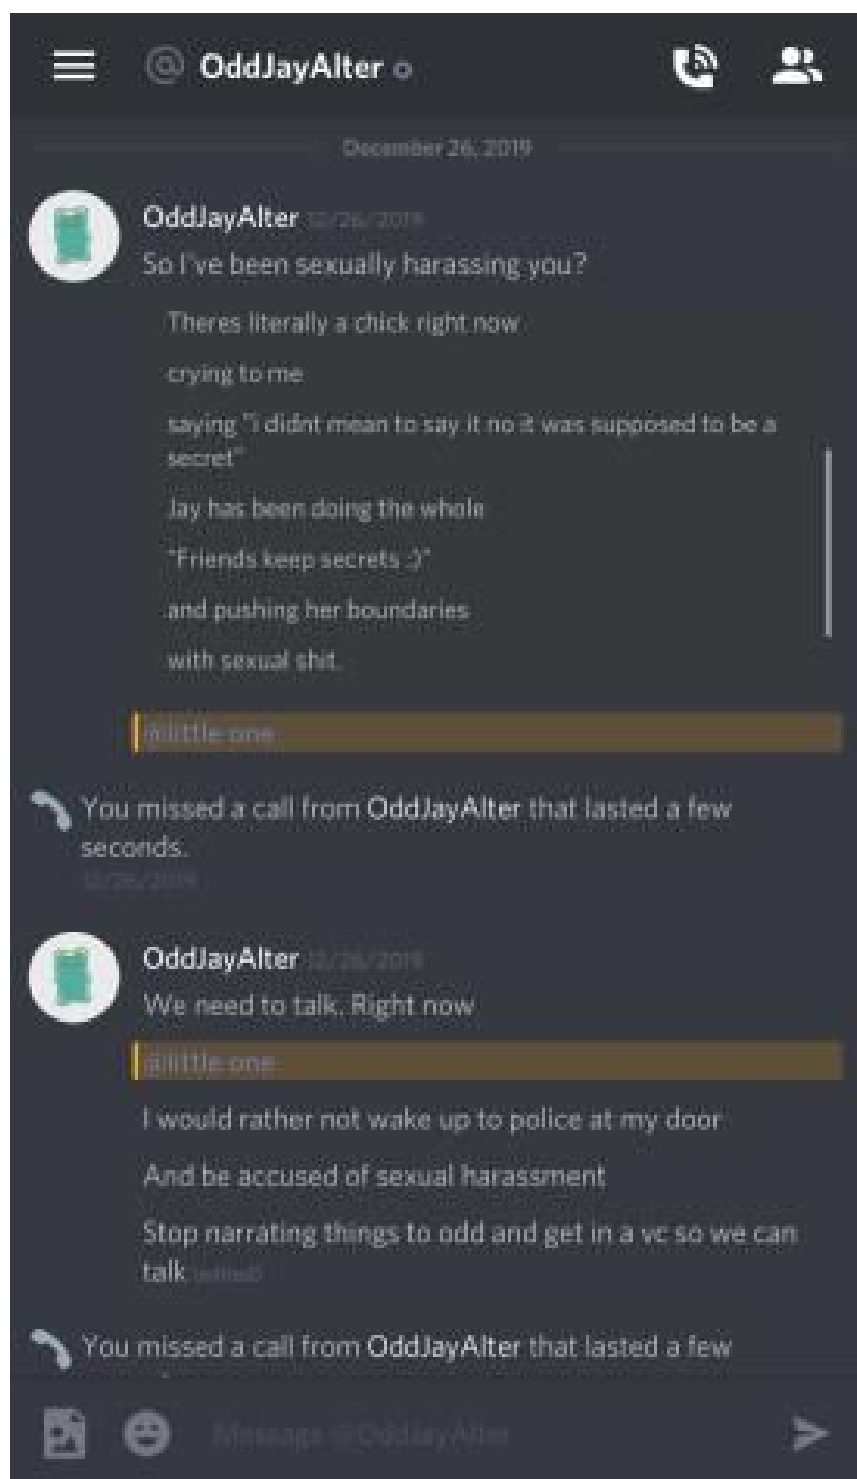

Remember when you said that? I do, but today when I went to the police station in my local area to ask for legal advice and we went through our dms, It was gone! Actually, all your side of the dms were gone. For example, remember that one time we played Minecraft together and I died!

You deleted everything you said there and so on! That's crazy that you would do that, as if you did something wrong! It's a good thing I have screenshots of our conversation and was able to show that.

Like Christmas night for example.

Here's what it says if its too

blurry: Jay: So i've been sexually harassing you?

He then shows me an anon screenshot saying “There's literally a chick right now crying to me saying “I didn't mean to say it no it was supposed to be a secret” Jay has been doing the whole “friends keep secrets :)” and pushing her boundaries with sexual sh*

Jay calls me again

Jay: we need to talk. Right now

Tags me again

Jay: I would rather not wake up to police at my door and be accused of sexual harassment

Stop narrating things to odd and get in a vc so we can talk

Then he calls again

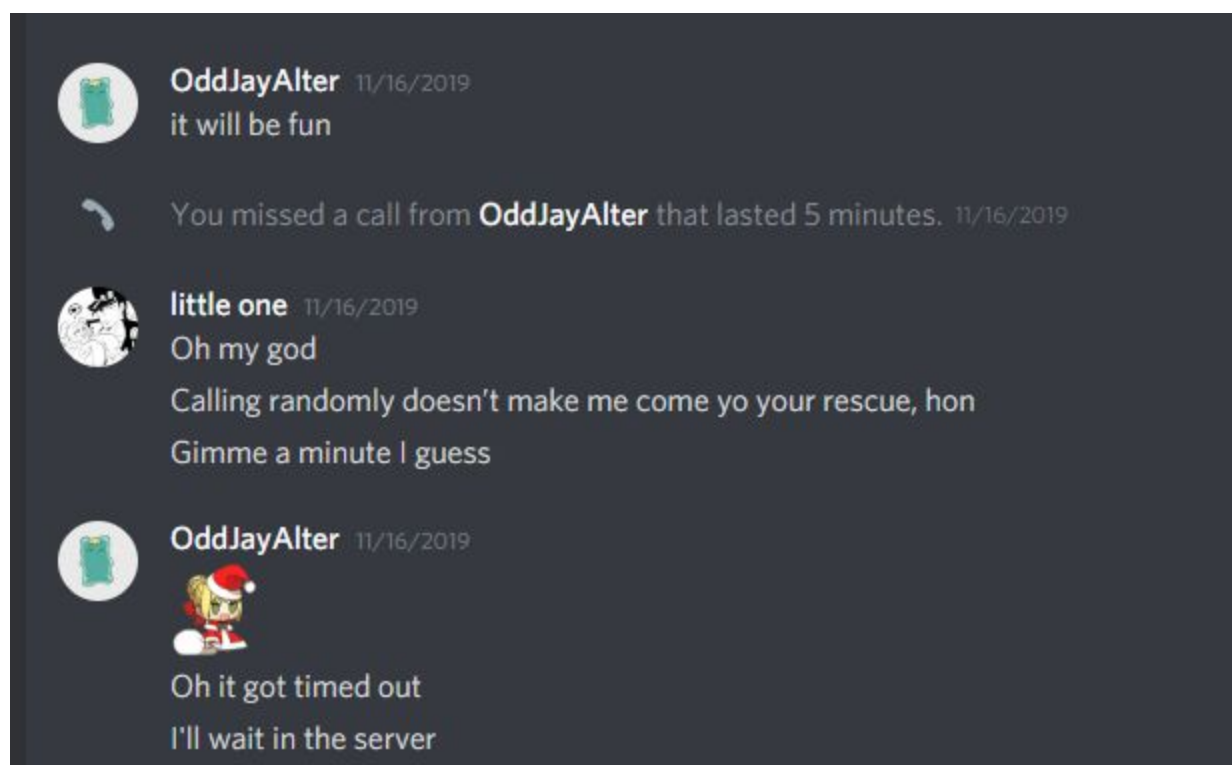

These are my original screenshots, unaltered from christmas night. If further proof is needed I can't provide because jay has deleted his whole dms. This is what it looks like now from my end.

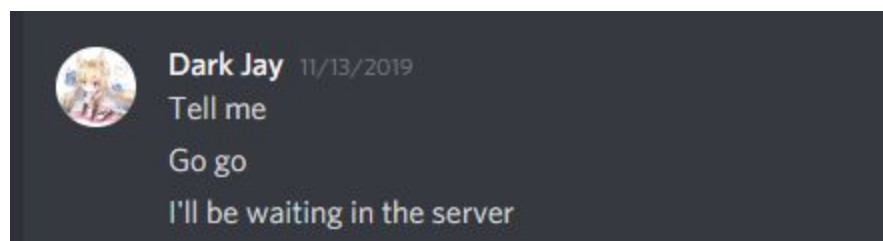

The same way you deleted our private server between you and I

This is the only proof I have that it exists

This is a screenshot from your OTHER account. The account you made for nsfw conversations between you, me and others you wanted to include.

One of the benefits of this server is that people don't cut out as often when in private calls. Discord treats their servers better so that constant leaving and coming back to fix our discord wont be AS prominent. There's a music bot and Not so bot, as you said before you don't really use music bots, but the Not-So bot can help search things up, etc, without going onto google! In my uses, it's been good. Won't search up EVERYTHING, but the majority. Its useful

The music bots are there because I really do enjoy listening to music. Sometimes it helps me, like after really intense sessions between us, listening to music and calming down, etc etc. You can use it whenever!

I made a rule room, and your own room, so you can do whatever you want

Hi Lumi, This is lil one. I know you may not know of me or heard much about me, but I will explain this whole message and furthermore if you take the chance to read it. It might be a bit long so bare with me!

I'm an online digital/traditional hobby artist who enjoys doodling and having a good time. I've made a lot of friends with this hobby and have entered a lot of fandoms by drawing and communicating with really cool amazing artist, making long lasting friendships with some really talented individuals that mean the world to me. Dan plan is one of them.

If I had known what would happen if I joined that discord server for fun, I would have steered clear. I am no future teller though, just a girl who likes to have fun and draw stupid memes and cool things. I feel you know where this message will be heading. If you wish to not read any longer, I completely understand. Your mental health and feelings matter before any situation that is presented before you. Gotta take care of yourself, and all that.

I met Jay a couple months ago, 3 or 4 I believe. I wasn't interested in him as in relationship wise, but picking on him was really funny to me. Thats kind of how I make friends sometimes, I pick and poke and if you can pick and poke back then we're homies. It started with me slandering his name with silly things like "he smells like cheese" and "he a stinky bo hinky" in the DP server. Just silly things that get care of yourself, and all that.

I met Jay a couple months ago, 3 or 4 I believe. I wasn't interested in him as in relationship wise, but picking on him was really funny to me. Thats kind of how I make friends sometimes, I pick and poke and if you can pick and poke back then we're homies. It started with me slandering his name with silly things like "he smells like cheese" and "he a stinky bo binky" in the DP server. Just silly things that get fangirls going "SHUT UP" for laughs. We began talking in dms and I began to feel like I was slowly growing a friendship with him. A small one, nothing too much. Now, I've had my friendships with youtubers and it either goes really bad or really weird so I was scared to talk to him every now and then but he seemed like a really cool guy. If I had trusted my gut, I wouldnt be in this situation and I wouldnt be typing harry potter book 7 in your dms.

We happened to get closer, yes, and I'm sure you knew of another person. That was me.

I knew of you too. Honestly it wasn't even that far to find you, but I had no problem. It's not like we were dating and it was just friendly fun. I had just gotten out of a really long and loving relationship with my ex boyfriend and was super emotional, and he happened to have been there for me when I was down. I ignored the fact that he would laugh while I cried over my ex even after he said it was okay to vent to him, or any problem I brought up. He would take advantage of things I did not want to consent to (I will spare details), my time and heart, and often it felt like I was the only friend in this friendship and he just used me for a good time for an hour or 3 before leaving. I realize now that he wasn't the kind of friend I needed in my life, especially during Christmas. I am very thankful for the friends I have in my life now, that helped a drunken Christmas me realize that this was toxic and not healthy. I hold them in my heart forever, because it's usually me trying to help them and the moment I let it slip that I was in a bad situation, they were the first to jump in and help me through. I hope you have friends like that. I hope you're all able to take care of each other like that.

The reason why I'm dming you right now is to apologize. I don't know if he treated you the same way he treated me, or if he did and you just enjoyed more, who knows. The way he would talk about you, it seemed that you were jealous and always upset that he had someone else and I promise it was never that way for me. He would warn me to not dm you, and how jealous and sad, and vengeful you were whenever he spent time with me, and I would tell him if it ever came to a time when you were truly heartbroken, that he doesn't haven't to

I hope from these screenshots you're able to understand briefly why I'm coming out about this and and now i'm hearing more people are being harmed and I can't help but feel responsible for not speaking about the sexual predator when he hurt me the first time. Also to clarify, I had mentioned to Lumi that after the 5th I wouldn't be talking to him anymore, because after I found out everything christmas night and he called me several times, I answered. He confessed to my pictures, and everything else in call and didn't write it down anywhere.

Dear Anike,
I won't butter words, nor expect you to believe any bit of it. But I would like to apologize formally for lying to you for the past 3 months. And I want to thank you for finding the truth. Believe it or not, the pit of lies that I dug myself into was drowning and shackling me. And without you, I'll probably still be stuck there. You, literally and metaphorically, saved my life. There are a lot of things I want to tell you if given the chance. But for short form, thank you for existing. And sorry, for existing.

Sincerely, Problem

Best of luck to you in the new year, maybe down the road we're able to rekindle the friendship we could have had.

Happy New years 🌟

And even after that, he still friend requested me and tried to contact me

Now, I'm hearing that you're hurting another person, that a young woman has had their pictures leaked and you are claiming innocence. I've talked with her about the pictures and she's stated that it was a different person who is blackmailing them, and while I do wish her the best with her current situation, do you understand why I hate pictures now? Do you understand why 3 months wasn't enough for me to "gain your trust" as you liked to say so many times. That even after asking my boundaries and writing them down

You still found some way to move around it.

I have a very...odd one shot(?) chance to help you jog your memories more thoroughly
It's a crazy idea, but it's the only one I know for a situation like this
I don't know any other way to help
I'm sorry. I apologize for not being able to help when I promised to

Dark Jay started a call. 10/05/2019

This is when it gets horrible, and I let you in and couldn't shake you off after that.

Dark Jay 10/05/2019

Please don't laugh at this... because people don't take me seriously after this point
I can try to hypnotize you to jog your memory one by one, minute by minute
I have never done it to another person
Just on myself
So I can't guarantee anything
I can't guarantee results
That is the only thing I can offer as help, I'm sorry
From the bottom of my heart, I apologize for not being able to help you at the moment
I wish there was more I could do
Yea
Let's just have a very very light drinking session
And talk and think
Sure
My phone doesn't work the best with discord
I have to be on my laptop
Also, with hypnosis, I can only do it if you trust me
Tomorrow, can you just fully trust me for 1 hour?
Nothing more nothing less
Sure
By virtue of hypnosis, I can't make you do something you don't want to do
If the goal is to find out what happened, that is what we will do
But, I genuinely need your trust, and follow my lead for it to have any sort of chance on success

1 hour
Ok
I can't do crazy stuff
I literally cannot
?!?!?!?!?
That... shouldn't be possible
Or else my knowledge on it is very shallow
Ok
I trust you
You don't trust me do you
...
Let's just pause it until tomorrow
Does that sound fair?

little one 10/05/2019

I trust you to do this, but I just want the truth and thats all.

Dark Jay 10/05/2019

I might need a longer break after this

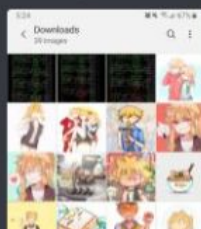

little one 10/05/2019

I think I might need one too

I still want to be your friend, I think that's just the heart in me talking but nothing makes sense and I don't like that.
If Colin had these pictures, I know he would tell me sooner or later. Boy can't keep secrets, that's one thing I know about him. It literally itches at him until he tells me
You on the other hand, I don't know
So again, I know it sounds triggering and you've been through tough situations like this

Dark Jay 10/05/2019

Here you show me your screenshots as if you didn't hide them elsewhere, but I was far too nervous to keep pressing with you guilt tripping me.

but if anything happened last night, this will probably be the only chance to tell me without me being truly upset. I will obviously be disappointed. In myself, in you, or in him if he confesses and tells me something I didnt know.

I scrolled through both our dms while you were away, maybe your email? I dont know
The other email, BUT either way
Tomorrow
I will try to trust you as much as I can
I really will\
but I'll have rules set up too just incase

It's fine
Tomorrow, can I have my little sister in the room?
I think I'll keep her

No it's not fine. I lost a trust of a friend

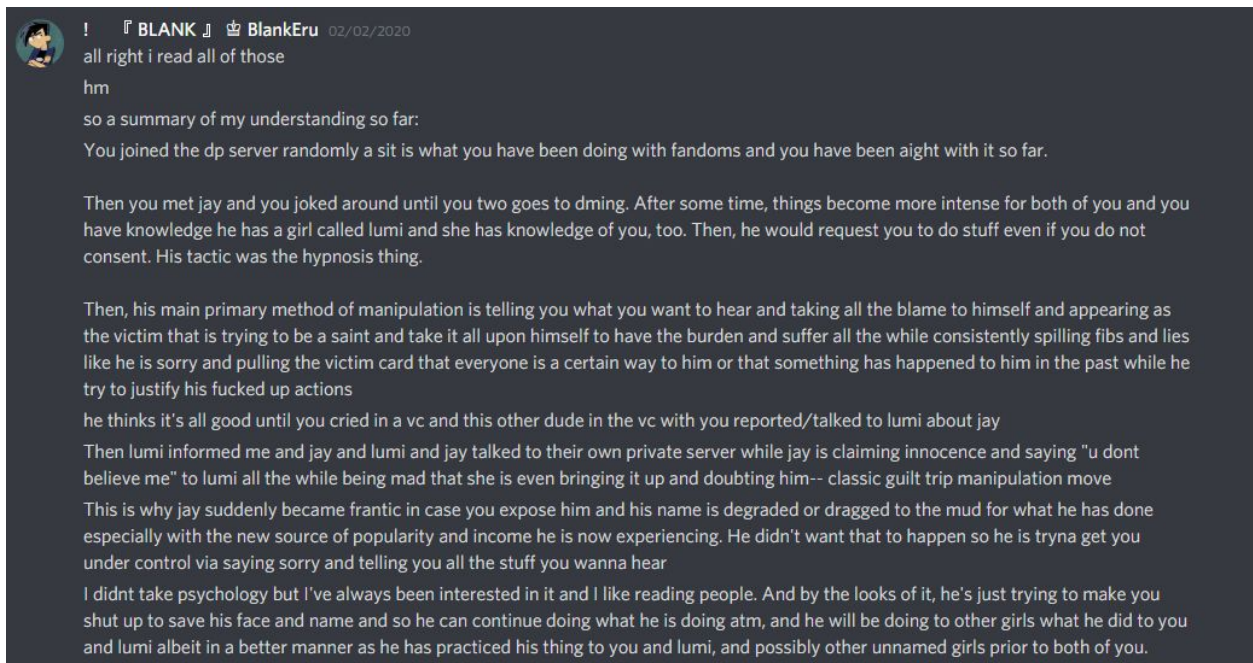

She doesnt understand much, and she usually just sleeps
I just need to make sure Im okay, and youre okay and I would love to be back to normal between us both but right now im so on edge its scary
I havent felt the need to put my walls up in a long time, and right now i'm on lock down mode

I prefer if it was private between you and me if we're going to do it. I strongly prefer it to put it lightly

So lets recap basically what has been done. Blank, a moderator of the Dan Plan server that I have been talking to explains it really well.

Blank wrapped it up really well and I know it's late to explain this but

To summarize as plain as possible, the main issue I had is that he agreed to my boundaries of not wanting to send nude pictures. We planned to play a game together and drink and that's when he convinced me to keep drinking because he wanted to try something in the call. I fell asleep in the call, woke up and the next morning I saw deleted pictures of myself in my phone. When I went to him about it, he lied and played the victim. Until Christmas night, nothing was said and he apologized for it. When I asked why, his response was "You wouldn't stop talking about it." That was the last time we were in a vc together.

Hi,

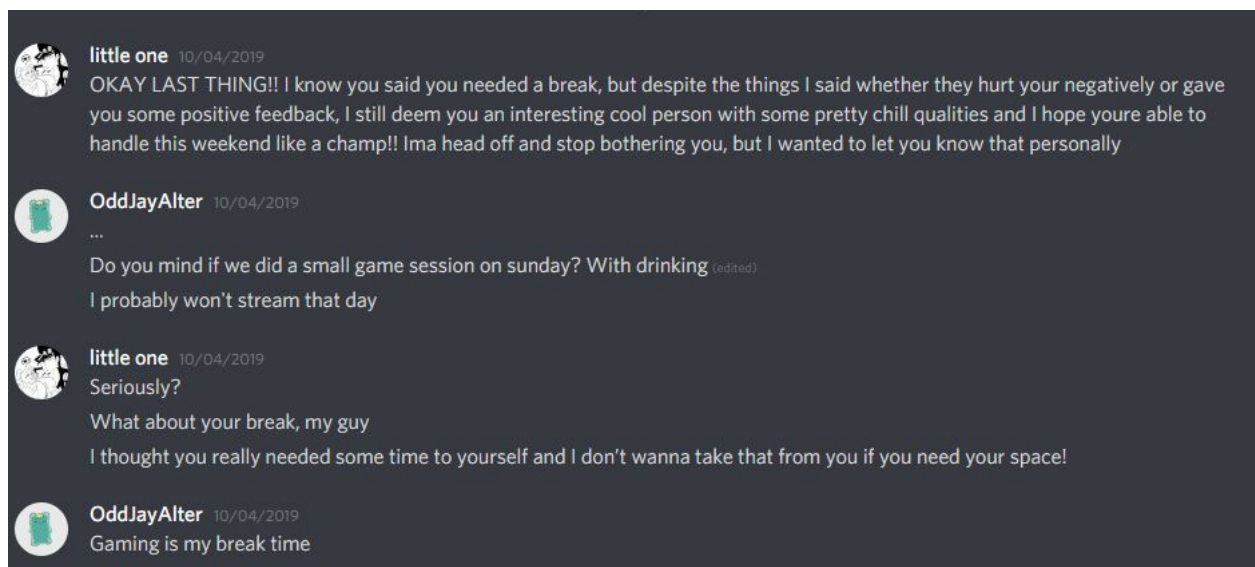

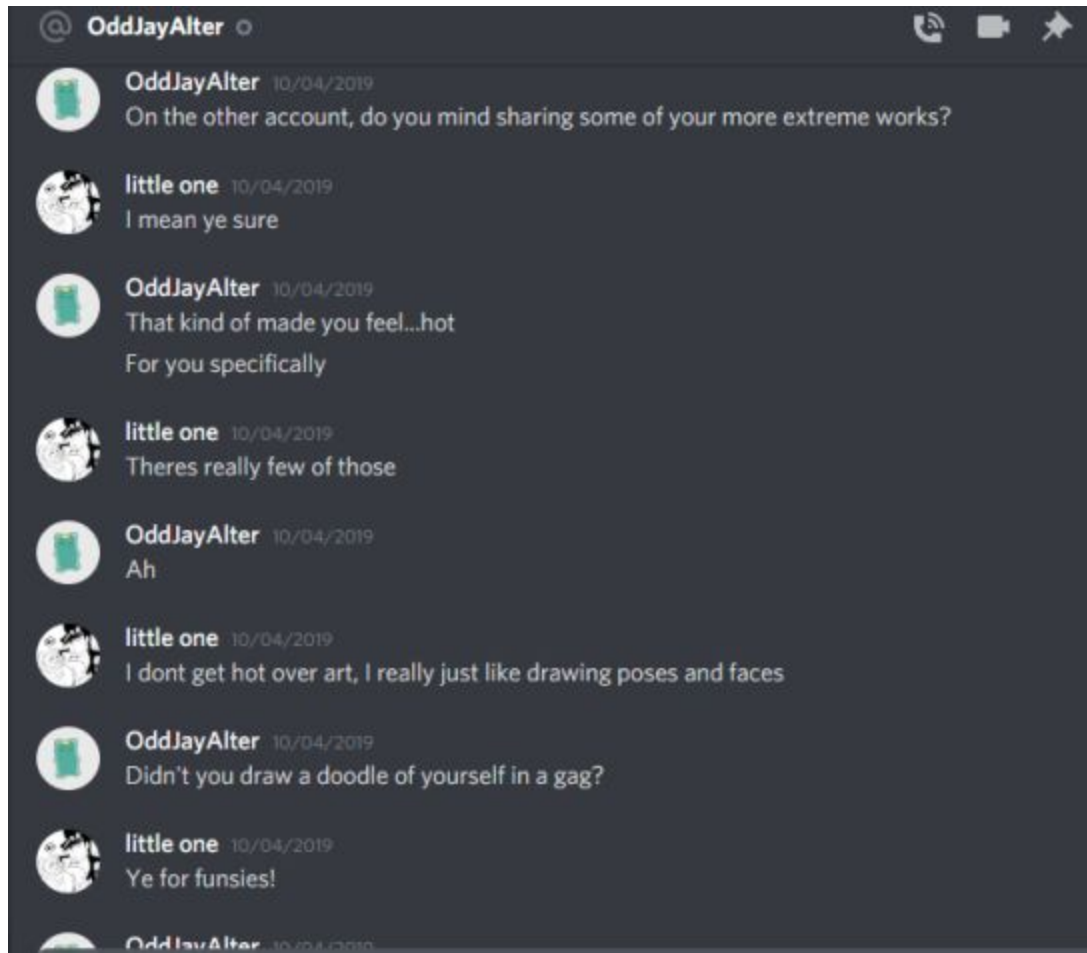

My name is little one online and all I do is draw and talk smack about Yoshikage Kira on the internet. This is my story, and the first time I'm talking about it publicly to the internet; this is how I've decided to come out about it. I was far too ashamed to say anything, I was too scared to even touch my phone for some time because every notification I heard, I thought was him. Every discord ring I heard, I thought was him, and it was too much. I didn't want to do it at first but when Blank told me someone's pictures were leaked 4 months after all this has been "ended" and this person was close to Jay as well, all the memories came flooding back and I knew I had to at least let others know, whether it's believed or not. Even if I am belittled, degraded and targeted as most people on the internet do when someone comes out with something that has happened to them against someone with a huge platform. It won't stop until people know the kind of person you are. I'm currently seeing a therapist provided by my new job, I've gotten a brand new drawing tablet, I have wonderful supportive friends in my circle and a long life ahead of me. I have been trying my best in the healthiest ways to move on and be the best me I can be. A lot of you reading this don't know who I am, and that is okay! I don't expect you to believe a stranger over someone you cherish and love. I only ask for your time and respect, I'm not "looking for clout" or trying to "spill the tea". My goal is to inform and have others not be harmed. I know I probably sound sarcastic or make jokes but one of my favorite quotes are "If you don't laugh about it, you'll cry about it" and I'm so tired of crying.

So join me, let others know. Help me, help you and help others. This sexual predator/groomer was given a platform and now he is doing horrible things with it and I know I can't do anything about it, but maybe someone else can. I ask that you all respect Blank, and Lumi who are mentioned in these dm messages. Please don't go out of your way to show them any harm. They've done nothing but help and support me.

Jay, if you are reading this, you may have hurt me but you shouldn't hurt others. Not anymore. That one conversation we had about your female friend talking to a dude who wanted nothing but sex with her and how "concerned" you were for your friend. Don't be that guy. Teach yourself to be better.

Here's some weird messages between him and I that you might find entertaining. I've learned to laugh at them.

reminding you to drink water @drinkwaterho · 11h
remember to drink water and not dumb bitch juice

OddJayAlter 09/28/2019

Is that saying your own cunt juice? Because it's not that bad.

OddJayAlter 09/27/2019

Oh I really don't have a heart. don't worry about that part. Life is literally a big game for me, and finding some one to either flirt or date or even to marry is a whole different game. And to use you as an example, because you already have a boyfriend, it's like trying to play a game where there is no win condition. It's frankly meaningless in my view.
I do try to be open minded, because it's hard to live if you don't. World is a lot more fun when you do, and in the game of life, you have a lot more things to use and work with if you have your mind open, than to keep it closed
